

OUTSTANDING JUNIOR AWARD

The Outstanding Junior Award, given in memory of John Spivey, was established in 1981. This award was designed to honor a member of the Illinois Junior Angus Association who not only is active in showing cattle, but also takes a leadership role in the Association. This award, presented each year at the Illinois Angus Futurity, is donated by the Spivey Family each year.

Qualifications:

1. Must be at least a junior in high school
2. Must be an officer or director of the Illinois Junior Angus Association
3. Individual can win this award only one time
4. Junior members can accumulate points only on their TOP THREE placing animals at the state and national shows (heifers can be bred-and-owned, owned, or both). List both the year and the registered name of the animal.
