

Contests at NJAS and How to Get Involved:

1. Cookoff: Rachel Frost (rachelfrost1126@gmail.com)
Sign up TODAY to get put into a group. Skits will be distributed in May and practice will take place with your group in June.
2. Photography: On your own. Check njaa.info for regulations. Submit by May 15.
3. NJAA Graphic Design: On your own: Themes:
Junior: Design a Business Card for your farm
Intermediate: Create a logo for Raising the Bar
Senior: Design an infographic flier using at least 5 statistics promoting Certified Angus Beef
Due May 15
4. NJAA Writing Contest: On your own.
Junior: You are a newborn calf, describe your first week of life
Intermediate: Explain your role in the Angus industry to a non-ag friend
Senior: One of your friends mention they are thinking of doing Meatless Monday. How do you respond
Due May 15
5. Auctioneering: Sign up by May 15 online
6. Beef Science Poster – for Juniors only. Entries are due in person on July 8.
7. Public Speaking: Outlines due May 25. Juniors and intermediate topics are open. Seniors are given a specific topic. See njaa.info for more information.
8. Career Development: Intermediate and Senior Only. Job descriptions and resumes due May 25.
9. Extemporaneous Speaking: Sign up by July 8 at the show.
10. NJAA Team Sales. Teams are being formed in Illinois at Beef Expo. Please see Trever Kuipers for more information and to be placed on a team. Limit of one team per age division per state.
11. Team Marketing: Similar to team sales but open to anyone intermediate or senior age range. No calf required. If you are interested in participating work on forming a team please do so on your own. Must submit a powerpoint to NJAA by June 20.
12. Team Fitting: There will be an Illinois fit-off at Field Day. Watch the sign up at that show to participate.
13. Cattle Judging: We will have sign ups at Field Day for this event. Open to anyone.
14. Quiz Bowl: We will take a quiz bowl practice test at Field Day and place kids in teams according to their practice score.

We are seeking adults to mentor/coach ANY of these contests – if you are interested in helping please see an advisor!